STaR Team Bulletin No.3 – Initial processing of SAIS student integrity to be delayed
Friday, September 29, 2006

We are issuing this bulletin to correct and clarify information regarding SAIS Student Integrity processing that has been disseminated by STaR Team members in answer to questions from SAIS end users during recent workshops and when providing one-on-one SAIS training and assistance.

It has come to the attention of STaR Team members that initial processing of SAIS Student Integrity for FY2007 will be delayed. The Arizona Department of Education had hoped to begin FY2007 SAIS Student Integrity processing at 5:00 PM today (9/29/06). Though we are expecting the delay to be only a matter of several days, we regret to relay that we cannot provide an exact date for the initial integrity processing run for FY2007. However, a bulletin will be issued and sent via this distribution list by the STaR Team when SAIS student integrity begins to run for FY2007.
